

Terms of Use

(Revised April 27, 2007) Welcome to BoatXchange.com, a service of Primo Boats Inc. By using this website, you accept the terms of this Terms of Use. This is a legally binding agreement between you and BoatXchange.com; please read it carefully. General Provisions

BoatXchange.com respects your privacy. Please take a moment to review our privacy statement. We invite you to bring to our attention any material on our site that you believe to be inaccurate. Please forward a copy of the material to our Customer Service Manager, along with an explanation of your objection. If you are an owner of intellectual property who believes your intellectual property has been improperly posted or distributed via this website, please notify us by sending email to info@boatxchange.com. The Web is an evolving medium. BoatXchange.com may change the terms of this agreement from time to time. By continuing to use this website following our posting of such changes, you agree to be bound by this agreement, as modified. BoatXchange.com may change, restrict access to, suspend, or discontinue this website, or any portion of this website, at any time. The material that appears on BoatXchange.com is for informational purposes only. Despite our efforts to provide useful and accurate information, errors may appear from time to time. Before purchasing goods or services you've read about on BoatXchange.com, you should confirm with the vendor any information (including the price) that is important to your purchasing decision. BoatXchange.com is not responsible for, and does not guarantee the performance of, any such goods or services. Buying and Selling boats

BoatXchange.com is a boat listing and information service that brings together buyers and sellers of boats. Information about a particular boat is supplied by the seller, not by BoatXchange.com. The price and other terms of any sale remain subject to direct negotiation between the buyer and the seller. The prices listed by sellers on BoatXchange.com often exclude sales tax, finance charges, title, license, regulatory, dealer documentary, emission testing and compliance fees, any or all of which may be added to the listed price to arrive at the final sale price of a particular boat. Though we hope that all who come to BoatXchange.com will act honorably and treat each other fairly, we can't verify the information sellers supply or guarantee the boats they offer. Nor can we assure the seller of a boat that the check he/she gets from the buyer isn't going to bounce. When using this website to find a buyer for your boat or a boat you can buy, we urge you to use the same common sense and good judgment you would use in selling a boat through, or responding to, a classified ad in the newspaper. In connection with our efforts to combat Internet fraud, some listings may be screened before being posted publicly. This process may delay display of your listing. We may also screen some email messages sent to sellers about boats listed on BoatXchange.com. If it appears that your email message has not reached the seller of the boat you're inquiring about, you might try inquiring by telephone if the seller has provided a telephone number. When you offer a boat for sale through BoatXchange.com, you must be prepared to sell that boat at the price at which, and the terms on which, you've listed it. You must have possession of the actual boat listed and the ability to transfer title. To list a boat for sale on BoatXchange.com, sellers are required to provide certain identifying and contact information. The information must accurately identify the seller and the method of contact must permit buyers to communicate directly with the seller. You may not charge any potential buyer for information about any boat listed for sale on BoatXchange.com, nor may you use our website to promote, without our prior written permission, any other website, product or service. Sell a boat ads are available only to private sellers who want to list their boats for sale. Responsibility for the information contained in ads lies with each seller. You alone are responsible for material you post and for the content of all email messages transmitted through BoatXchange.com. Nothing will undermine a user's confidence in the boat you're looking to sell faster than inaccurate statements or misleading representations about the boat. And since any erosion of user confidence in you is likely to be accompanied by erosion of user confidence in us, we care deeply about making sure that the information you supply is accurate and that, in all respects, you treat BoatXchange.com users fairly and honorably. Though we can't monitor every transaction that originates on BoatXchange.com, we may perform random quality assurance tests to confirm that those who offer boats for sale over BoatXchange.com are prepared to sell the boats they advertise at the prices at which, and the terms on which, they advertise them. By using our Sell a boat service, you agree to cooperate in these random quality assurance tests. If our tests reveal, or we otherwise learn, that a seller is engaging in "bait and switch" or other unfair or deceptive practices, BoatXchange.com reserves the right to deny that seller use of the Sell Your boat service. Although BoatXchange.com cannot monitor all the listings posted to our website, we reserve the right (but assume no obligation) to delete, move, or edit any ads or other postings that come to our attention that we consider unacceptable or inappropriate, whether for legal or other reasons. By using BoatXchange.com you agree not to post or transmit any defamatory, abusive, obscene, threatening, misleading, or illegal material, or any other material that infringes on the rights of others or interferes with the ability of others to enjoy BoatXchange.com. We retain the right to deny access to anyone who we believe has violated these terms or any other term of this agreement. We will not, in the ordinary course of business, review the content of private electronic messages that are not addressed to BoatXchange.com. However, we may occasionally release information concerning such communications when release is appropriate to comply with law (including disclosure in response to a request from a law enforcement agency), to enforce our Terms of Use, or to protect the rights, property or safety of visitors to our site, our advertisers, the public or BoatXchange.com. By placing an ad through our Sell a boat service, you agree to pay the fees specified for the package you select, regardless of whether your boat sells as a result of the listing. Take care in selecting your ad package and inputting your ad information; listing fees are generally not refundable, even if you provide erroneous information or fail to sell a boat. Links to Other Sites

For your convenience, we make available a variety of links to other websites that we don't operate where you can obtain marine related products and services, including insurance, warranties, financing and survey services. Although we encourage you to consult such websites, we cannot guarantee the prices, terms, quality, reliability or performance of the products or services provided by these vendors. BoatXchange.com is not responsible for the products or services these vendors provide. If you choose to purchase a survey through such a third-party website, remember that a survey is not a warranty. Although surveys can be of significant value in the purchase of a used boat, an survey is not a guarantee that the inspected boat is free from defects or that the inspectors have identified all existing defects. Before you purchase survey services, you should confirm with the inspector the location at which the survey will be conducted, the scope and price of the survey, and any other information you consider important to your decision. You are responsible for coordinating and arranging for the survey. You release BoatXchange.com and its affiliates from any damages that you may incur, and agree not to assert any claims against them, arising from your purchase or use of third-party supplied products and services. For your convenience, we make available links to websites operated by boat dealerships that list their boats in our online classifieds. Although we may power some of these dealer websites, we are not responsible for any of the content that appears on these sites, including, without limitation, promotional contests and sweepstakes offers. We do not co-sponsor, operate, endorse or guarantee any advertiser sweepstakes or contest offer that may be promoted from time to time on our site, or that may be accessible through a link from our site, and you release BoatXchange.com and its affiliates from any damages that you may incur, and agree not to assert any claims against them, arising from your entry, participation or acceptance of any prize in any such sweepstakes or contest offer.
